

1,000,000+ miles and still going strong!

Routemaster RML2666

RML2666 in St. Albans, driven by its present owner [2005]

- July 1967 - New to Aldenham [Body B2666]
- September 1967 - Stored at Hanwell
- September 1967 - Toured Belgium to promote British business
- October 1967 - In store at Aldenham
- November 1967 - In store at Walworth
- November 1967 - In Croydon for routes 59, 130, 130A/B/C and 197 (Sundays only)

April 1970 - Bexleyheath & Croydon

May 1970 - Holloway routes 14 & N92

June 1970 - West Ham routes 5 & 69

December 1970 - Re-painted

December 1970 - Stamford Hill routes 243, 243A & N83

September 1974 - Overhauled: Body B2673 fitted

February 1976 - Hendon routes 13, 113 & 140 (Sundays only)

October 1981 - Overhauled: Body B2666 re-fitted

October 1981 - Hounslow route 37

May 1985 - Overhauled

August 1985 - Chalk Farm route 3 (Sat & Sun only) & 24

October 1986 - Tottenham route 73

1990 - Cummins engine fitted

1994 - Refurbished

October 2001 - Clapton route 38 (swopped with RM5)

November 2003 - Returned to Tottenham

September 2004 - Withdrawn from service (route taken over by 'bendy' buses)

October 2004 - Sold to Ensignbus at Purfleet

November 2004 - Purchased by present owner Mike Tamkin

December 2004 to date - re-painted in original 1967 livery, new body panels fitted, tachograph fitted, new batteries and seats upholstered.

The future - It is planned to re-paint the interior and fit original trafficator arms.

Summer 2003

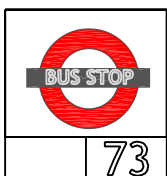

March 93 - Euston Churchway

August 1999

September 1989 - Bedford Square

LONDON TRANSPORT

